LIMITATION ON PRIVATE BENEFITS

- 4.2
- 4.2.1 A Trustee is entitled to be re-imbursed from the property of the Charity or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of the Charity.

- (b) sell goods, services or any interest in land to the Charity;
- (c) be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, the Charity;
- (d) receive any financial benefit from the Charity;

unless the payment is permitted by Article 4.3.2 or authorised by the court or the Charity Commission.

the Trustee or connected person supplying the goods (“the supplier”) under which the supplier is to supply the goods in question to or on behalf of the Charity.

- (b) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question.
- (c) The other Trustees are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the Charity to contract with the supplier rather than someone who is not a Trustee or connected person. In reaching that decision the Trustees must balance the advantage of contracting with a Trustee or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so.
- (d) The Supplier is absent for the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to the Charity.
- (e) The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of Trustees is present at the meeting.
- (f) The reason for their decision is recorded by the Trustees in the minute book.
- (g) A majority of the Trustees then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by Article 4.3.

19.2 Such a decision may, but need not, take the form of a resolution in Writing, copies of which have been signed by each Trustee or to which each Trustee has otherwise indicated agreement in Writing.

19.3 A decision which is made in accordance with this Article 19 shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting duly convened and held, provided the following conditions are complied with:

19.3.1 approval from each Trustee must be received by one person being either such person as all the Trustees have nominated in advance for that purpose or such other person as volunteers if necessary ("the Recipient"), which person may, for the avoidance of doubt, be one of the Trustees;

participate in the decision-making process, to be counted in the quorum and to vote in relation to the matter. Any uncertainty about whether a Trustee's interest or duty is likely to give rise to a conflict shall be determined by a majority decision of the other Trustees taking part in the decision-making process.

20.4 If a Trustee's interest or duty gives rise (or could reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise) to a conflict of interest or a conflict of duties with or in respect of the Charity, he or she may participate in the decision-making process and may be counted in the quorum and vote unless:

20.4.1 the decision could result in the Trustee or any person who is Connected with him or her receiving a benefit other than:

- (a) any benefit received in his, her or its capacity as a beneficiary of the Charity (as permitted under Article 4.3.2(a)) and which is available generally to the beneficiaries of the Charity;

in which case he or she must comply with Article 20.5.

20.5 If a Trustee with a conflict of interest or conflict of duties is required to comply with this Article 20.5, he or she must:

20.5.1 take part in the decision-making process only to such extent as in the view of the other Trustees is necessary to inform the debate;

20.5.2 not be counted in the quorum for that part of the process; and 20.5.3 withdraw during the vote and have no vote on the matter.

Continuing duties to the Charity

20.6 Where a Trustee has a conflict of interest or conflict of duties and the Trustee has complied with his or her obligations under these Articles in respect of that conflict:

20.6.1 the Trustee shall not be in breach of his or her duties to the Charity by withholding confidential information from the Charity if to disclose it would result in a breach of any other duty or obligation of confidence owed by him or her; and

20.6.2 the Trustee shall not be accountable to the Charity for any benefit expressly permitted under these Articles which he or she or any person Connected with him or her derives from any matter or from any office, employment or position.

21. Validity of Trustee actions

All acts done by a person acting as a Trustee shall, even if afterwards discovered that there was a defect in his or her appointment or that he or she was disqualified from holding office or had vacated office, be as valid as if such person had been duly appointed and was qualified and had continued to be a Trustee.

22. Trustee's discretion to make further rules

- 24.3 Each Trustee shall retire from office at the third Annual Retirement Meeting following the commencement of his or her term of office.
- 24.4 The Annual Retirement Meeting shall be the meeting of the Trustees at which the accounts of the Charity are adopted.

Maximum term

- 24.5 Retiring Trustees may be reappointed but a Trustee who has served for three consecutive terms of office must take a break from office and may not be reappointed until the earlier of:
- 24.5.1 the anniversary of the commencement of his or her break from office; and
- 24.5.2 the Annual Retirement Meeting following the Annual Retirement Meeting at which his or her break from office commenced.
- 24.6 If the retirement of a Trustee under Article 24.3 causes the number of Trustees to fall below that set out in Article 23 then the retiring Trustee shall remain in office until a new appointment is made.
- 24.7 In exceptional circumstances, the Trustees may by a majority decision of at least two-thirds of the Trustees present, pass a resolution by secret ballot to permit a Trustee to serve an additional term of three years in office (in addition to the three (or more) consecutive terms of office served) (an “Additional Term”). Any Trustee serving his or her fourth or more successive term shall retire at the Annual Retirement Meeting following the end of his or her Additional Term, and be subject again to the provisions of this Article.

24.8 No person may be appointed as a Trustee unless he or she has reached the age of 18 years.

25. Disqualification and removal of Trustees
