Inspection date	11 September 2018
Previous inspection date	11 August 2015

The quality and standards of the early years provision	This inspection:	Met
	Previous inspection:	Met

Summary of key findings for parents

This provision meets requirements

- The childminder maintains a paediatric first-aid qualification. She is aware of how this helps her to manage children's minor accidents or emergencies.
- The childminder understands her role in safeguarding and protecting children from harm. She understands her responsibilities for child protection and the importance of managing any concerns, including how to report these concerns to the correct agencies.
- The childminder understands how to use activities and resources to excite and challenge children and help them make progress in their learning. She knows how to identify children's starting points and to monitor their ongoing development.
- The childminder understands how to monitor her work and skills. She looks for ways to improve her knowledge and remains up to date with childcare issues.
- The childminder recognises the need to work in partnership with parents and other professionals and share information on a regular basis to meet the care and learning needs of the children.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector sampled documents that the childminder intends to use to support her work.
- The inspector discussed with the childminder her process for self-evaluation.
- The inspector looked at the rooms and the resources available for childminding.
- The inspector spoke with the childminder about her methods for assessing children's progress and planning for their future development.
