Summary of key findings

This provision meets requirements

- The provider is aware of the safeguarding and welfare requirements and is up to date with current legislation. She knows the signs that a child may be at risk of abuse and the procedures to follow to report any concerns to help safeguard children.
- The provider has a good understanding of how children learn. She knows how to use observation and assessments to effectively plan for children's individual needs. She has a suitable range of toys and resources in her setting to support children's learning.
- The provider understands how to organise her home and resources. She provides the required space for children to play and move around freely and safely in. She knows how to minimise hazards to keep children safe in all areas of her home.
- The provider knows how to promote children's physical and oral health. For example, by providing healthy foods, visits to local dentists and daily opportunities for physical exercise.
- The provider has high expectations for children's behaviour. She is aware of how to be a good role model to support children to develop positive attitudes and to have respect and tolerance for everybody.

There were no children in the early years age range present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no early years children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- This was the first routine inspection the provider received since the COVID-19 pandemic began. The inspector discussed the impact of the pandemic with the provider and has taken that into account in their evaluation of the provider.
- The inspector discussed policies and procedures with the provider, which include the arrangements to safeguard and promote children's welfare.
- The provider accompanied the inspector around the areas of the premises that are used for childminding.
- The inspector held discussions with the provider about how she intends to deliver the educational programme for children.
- The provider shared her documentation with the inspector, including suitability checks for members of the household, insurance and first-aid certificate.

We carried out this inspection under sections 49 and 50 of the Childcare Act 2006 on the quality and standards of provision that is registered on the Early Years Register. The registered person must ensure that this provision complies with the statutory framework for children's learning, development and care, known as the early years foundation stage.
