Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder has a clear understanding of the Early Years Foundation Stage requirements.
- The childminder has a clear understanding of how to develop and deliver the educational programmes to support children's learning.
- The childminder has a good understanding of how to identify children's starting points, which will enable her to observe, plan and carry out assessments to meet children's individual needs.
- The childminder is confident in her understanding of her role to safeguard children. She is aware of safeguarding procedures and ensures the premises are well maintained and secure.
- The childminder has a suitable understanding of how to promote children's well-being and health.
- The childminder is aware of the importance of working in partnership with parents and others who may be involved in the children's development to provide continuity in their care and education.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector discussed the Early Years Foundation Stage requirements with the childminder, to check her knowledge.
- The inspector sampled documentation, policies and procedures.
- The inspector discussed with the childminder how she delivers the educational programmes for children.
- The inspector discussed the self-evaluation and improvement plans.
- The inspector was shown around the premises by the childminder.

This inspection was carried out by Ofsted under sections 49 and 50 of the Childcare Act 2006 on the quality and standards of provision that is registered on the Early Years Register. The registered person must ensure that this provision complies with the statutory framework for children's learning, development and care, known as the Early Years Foundation Stage.

Any complaints about the inspection or the report should be made following the procedures set out in the guidance 'Complaints procedure: raising concerns and making complaints about Ofsted', which is available from Ofsted's website: www.gov.uk/government/organisations/ofsted. If you would like Ofsted to send you a copy of the guidance, please telephone 0300 123 4234, or email enquiries@ofsted.gov.uk.

The Office for Standards in Education, Children's Services and Skills (Ofsted) regulates and inspects to achieve excellence in the care of children and young people, and in education and skills for learners of all ages. It regulates and inspects childcare and children's social care, and inspects the Children and Family Court Advisory Support Service (Cafcass), schools, colleges, initial teacher training, work-based learning and skills training, adult and community learning, and education and training in prisons and other secure establishments. It assesses council children's services, and inspects services for looked after children, safeguarding and child protection.
