

Childminder report

Inspection date	6 February 2019
Previous inspection date	17 July 2014

The quality and standards of the early years provision	This inspection:	Met
	Previous inspection:	Met

Summary of key findings for parents

This provision meets requirements

- The childminder understands the importance of creating a welcoming environment. She has toys, equipment and resources to meet the learning needs of different age groups of children.
- The childminder knows how to use observation and assessments to effectively plan for children's individual needs.
- The childminder understands her responsibilities to safeguard children's welfare. She demonstrates knowledge of child protection issues and the appropriate procedures to follow.
- The childminder has an understanding of how to manage children's behaviour. She has considered how she will help children to respect and value other people, and encourage their positive behaviour, through implementing ground rules and providing praise and encouragement.
- The childminder knows the importance of evaluating her practice and understands how to use feedback from parents to help improve her service.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector discussed with the childminder how she promotes children's learning and development in partnership with other settings.
- The inspector looked at the documents the childminder uses and discussed her policies.
- The inspector looked at the space available for childminding and the resources the childminder uses.
- The inspector held discussions with the childminder to assess her knowledge of the early years foundation stage requirements.
