Summary of key findings

This provision meets requirements

- The childminder discussed how she has addressed the previous actions raised. She has improved her knowledge of child protection and ensured that the premises are free from obstruction hazards.
- The childminder demonstrates that she knows how to plan activities and how to tailor these to meet the different needs of children who may attend. She explains how she has considered how she could adapt different activities to provide greater challenge to children.
- The childminder can demonstrate a secure understanding of how to encourage positive behaviour and strategies to support this.
- The childminder has secure safeguarding knowledge and can identify signs and indicators of abuse.
- The childminder demonstrates a well established key-person system and how to nurture secure attachments.

There were no children in the early years age range present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no early years children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.
