

Childminder Report

Inspection date	8 July 2016
Previous inspection date	Not applicable

The quality and standards of the early years provision	This inspection:	Met
	Previous inspection:	Not applicable

Summary of key findings for parents

The provision meets requirements

- The childminder understands how to promote children's learning and development. She knows how to plan activities to address any individual learning needs and help prepare them for their future learning.
- The childminder is aware of her responsibilities under the safeguarding and welfare requirements. She knows how to protect children's welfare, including the procedures to follow should she have any concerns about a child in her care.
- The childminder understands how to work together with parents and other professionals, to promote a cohesive working approach to supporting children's individual needs.
- The childminder understands how to manage children's behaviour and to help them develop positive attitudes towards others.
- The childminder recognises the importance of evaluating her practice. She continues to seek advice and guidance, such as from the local authority and other childminders, to keep her knowledge up to date about current childcare issues.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector held discussions with the childminder to assess her understanding of meeting the statutory requirements.
- The inspector observed all areas within the home available for childminding purposes.
- The inspector sampled a range of documentation, including suitability records for all adults living in the home, and the childminder's training certificates, policies and procedures.
