This inspection

This home was judged good at the last full inspection. At this interim inspection the home was 'not judged'.

The home has been closed since December 2014. The registered provider informed Ofsted via a telephone conversation on 13 January 2015 that it will not be operational for at least the next three months. Should the home decide to accept placements they are required to inform Ofsted of their intention before they do so.

Information about this children's home

This is a privately owned children's home. The home is registered to provide care and accommodation for one young person with emotional or behavioural difficulties.

What inspection judgements mean

At the interim inspections we make a judgement on whether the home has improved in effectiveness, sustained effectiveness, or declined in effectiveness since the previous full inspection. This is in line with the Inspection of children's homes: framework for inspection.

Information about this inspection

The purpose of this inspection is to assure children and young people, parents, the public, local authorities and government of the quality and standard of the service provided. The inspection was carried out under the Care Standards Act 2000 to assess the effectiveness of the service and to consider how well it complies with the relevant regulations and meets the national minimum standards.

The report details the main strengths, any areas for improvement, including any breaches of regulation, and any failure to meet national minimum standards. The judgements included in the report are made against the framework of inspection for children's homes.
